DETAILED ACTION

1. This is in response to the Applicant's argument filed on September 12, 2005 in which claims 1-3 have been canceled, claim 7 has been added. Claims 4-7 are currently pending.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. After a further search and thorough examination of the present application and in view of the applicant's arguments, claims 4-6, renumbered as 1-4, are found to be in condition of allowance.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art teaches allowing a telephone number that is assigned to a pager to be dialed, via a modem line, upon the occurrence of pre-specified conditions at a call center but this system utilizes hard coded pager telephone numbers and it would required an on-site expert.

On the other hand, the Applicant specifically teaches upon the occurrence of pre-defined conditions triggering the placement of a pager telephone call by a pager telephone call processor that generates and sends a pager call record via a modem and telephone line. More specifically, the Applicant teaches storing properties associated with said at least one contact party and said at least one triggering condition in a paging system database, monitoring said telephone call to detect the occurrence of said at least one triggering condition; and generating and processing a pager telephone cal
